募集要項

This is an excting role for an experienced compliance professional to help develop and maintain a strong ethics and compliance framework for a multinational business in Japan. The role combines hands-on advisory work with program management and stakeholder engagement.

Key Responsibilities

- Support the implementation and continuous improvement of the company's compliance framework in line with global standards and local requirements
- Identify and manage compliance risks through risk assessments, monitoring, testing, and remediation activities
- Build strong relationships with business leaders and employees while contributing to regional and global compliance initiatives
- Provide practical advice on areas including anti-bribery, conflicts of interest, third-party risk, internal reporting, and regulatory compliance
- Develop compliance communications and training programs that promote ethical decision-making and a strong culture of integrity

- Support and manage investigations into potential compliance concerns, ensuring appropriate confidentiality, documentation, and follow-up actions
- Prepare reports and analysis on compliance risks, trends, and program effectiveness for senior management
