会社紹介:

Wall Street Associates K.K. is a company with a strong record of executive recruitment in the fields of accounting, IT, HR, and finance. Founded in 1997, and one of a few ISO9001:2000 certified recruitment agencies in Tokyo, Kansai, Yokohama, and Nagoya, we set the standard for excellence in our business.

Our method involves meeting with candidates to interview them before any introductions take place. The candidate's character, capabilities, and potential are carefully assessed, and successful matches are introduced to client companies. At Wall Street Associates, there is no concept of "candidate ownership". This means that all our consultants share whatever information is necessary to enable each of them to deliver the best recruitment solutions possible to our candidates.

To further augment the human resource-matching capabilities of its engineering division, Wall Street Associates has acquired Step Consulting, Inc., a company with a strong focus on the Semiconductor and Wireless industries. The combined engineering unit is named Step Consulting Division.
