募集要項

About the role

The Japanese Language Teacher role focuses on developing students' Japanese language proficiency through structured lessons covering grammar, vocabulary, kanji, and practical communication. The position also supports students in developing an understanding of Japanese culture, work ethics, and professional conduct.

Responsibilities

- Teach Japanese grammar, vocabulary, and kanji across various proficiency levels.
- Develop engaging lesson plans and educational materials.
- Evaluate student performance through regular assessments.
- Support students in developing practical Japanese communication skills.
- Share knowledge of Japanese culture, work ethics, and professional conduct.

Requirements

- Minimum JLPT N3 certification.
- At least one year of Japanese language teaching experience.

- Experience in Kaiwa training and using the Irodori textbook is preferred.
- Strong understanding of Japanese language and culture.
- Patient, enthusiastic, and dedicated to teaching.
- Willing to work in the Tangerang area.

About the company

A company in the education and training industry providing Japanese language learning programmes. The organisation supports students in developing Japanese language proficiency alongside their understanding of Japanese culture and professional conduct.
