

Company Description

EP Consulting Services (PANACHE)

*PANACHE Corp. became EP Consulting Services on Dec 1st, 2011. We will keep providing staffing service with "PANACHE" brand.

PANACHE provides flexible HR and IT solutions to multinational companies in Japan. Its services include permanent placement, haken/contract staffing and IT outsourcing.

Friendly, experienced, multilingual consultants provide not just "keyword matching," but a deep understanding of both candidates' and companies' requirements, allowing them to provide the best consultation and services to both sides.

PANACHE is also known as a leading agency for staff support and benefits. Its original benefits package includes language classes (Japanese/English) and a certification-fee-refund plan for improving skills. These high-quality and well-established services make it possible to quickly provide flexible, tailored and customized solutions for detailed requests from candidates.
