Company Description:

Listed on the London Stock Exchange, Michael Page International is one of the world ' s leading professional recruitment consultancies, specialising in the placement of candidates in permanent, contract and temporary positions with clients in 19 countries on five continents.

In Japan, Michael Page International brings global expertise to the local market, offering premium recruitment services in the specialist areas of Finance (including Banking), Accounting, Marketing, Sales, Law, and Human Resources. Our regional network of offices extends our reach in Singapore, Shanghai, Hong Kong, across Australia and around the world.

Michael Page consultants do not work on commission, a factor that promotes a unique team-based culture focused on partnering with clients and candidates alike. Our culture rewards the delivery of quality customer service rather than sales.

Michael Page ' s website www.michaelpage.co.jp provides an overview of our business as well as details of current trends in various employment categories, salary guides and interview advice for both employers and those seeking a new role.
