It all began in London and New York, two leading global business centers.

EER Global specializes in global recruitment & headhunting solutions.

We have created a unique method for hiring the right people and matching them to organizations, through careful examination and in-depth research. Our professional team of recruiters, in key business regions world-wide, have recruited in 40 different countries in recent years.

We are very proud of our collaboration with our clients, who are also our partners, and are happy to share with them our knowledge, expertise, and recruitment capabilities.
