

Accenture Japan Ltd.

Company Description

Who we are

360° value is at the heart of our business

Every day, the people of Accenture embrace change and create value for all our stakeholders, in every part of the world—we call it 360° value.

Creating positive change

We're committed to creating positive change around the world and ensuring we act as responsible business leaders for our people, our clients, and the communities we call home.

Leading with vision and experience

"All strategies lead to technology—companies must reinvent all parts of the enterprise with data, AI and new ways of working to build resilience and find paths to new growth." - Julie Sweet / Chair & CEO

Industry of One

Across industries, we bring together the capabilities needed to help clients change and grow quickly.
