SHANGRI-LA

Shangri-La Tokyo

Company Description

From Asia to the World

It is in our nature to be bold and entrepreneurial.
Building on our core strength in hospitality, we have expanded beyond hotels. Today, the Shangri-La Group has over 100 hotels in 76 destinations and a portfolio of real estate, investment properties, restaurants and bars, as well as lifestyle facilities.

Owner, Developer, Operator Mindset

At Shangri-La Group, we have a long and successful record of accomplishment of being able to take project blueprints to developing and operating hotels and integrated mixed-use destinations. Our capabilities and strengths stretch from strong project and asset management, technical support to offering insights and market intelligence mined from our rich customer database. We know our guests and over the years have earned their trust through our thoughtful and genuine service from the heart.
