Aquent LLC

Company Description

Aquent is the leading global work solutions company specializing in marketing, creative and development. We help organizations find, grow, and support their most valuable resource—people. From specialty recruiting and talent experience to creative strategy and project management, we're making the future of work better for everyone.

Our Brands

Aquent Talent

The global leader in talent and recruiting for marketing, creative, and development. From urgent, remote freelance designers to full-time permanent director-level hires, we match the right people to the right roles and build relationships that help talent and companies thrive.

Aquent Studios

A global co/creation agency built on a new model of engagement. We take partnerships further by enabling and empowering brands and crafting human-centred experiences together. We deliver scale, speed, and efficiency, and extend in-house teams' capacity, capabilities, and operations.

Aquent Gymnasium

An online learning platform that offers free courses taught by industry experts in web design and development, user experience, accessibility, prototyping, content creation, and career skills.
