Specialized Group

Company Description

Specialized Group provide recruitment solutions to multinational companies in Japan.

We are committed to becoming ‘the recruiter of choice for consultants, clients, and candidates’.

Our consultants match the right professionals to the right clients, from people with two years of experience to country heads. We work across finance, information technology, human resources, sales & marketing, legal and SCM / Procurement / Logistics services. We benefit from strengths in industry-focused teams in real estate, alternative investment, healthcare, banking, consumer goods and fintech.

We aim to place people in positions they will succeed in. Our values of understanding people, working together, sharing success and delivering results encourage a focus on facilitating beneficial career moves. Our strategy is to recruit, train and continually motivate great consultants. Great consultants develop meaningful relationships in their areas of expertise. This understanding enables us to deliver better results for client and candidates.

We are Specialized Group.
