JAC Recruitment in Germany
On 7 December 2018, the opening of JAC Recruitment Germany in Düsseldorf was announced via press release in Tokyo. This new base of operations is the first in Europe since the inception of the U.K. office in 1975 and heralds JAC Recruitment Group's plans for further business operations within the EU region.

With the number of Japanese companies in Germany nearly double that of the U.K. and a third of them operating in the Düsseldorf area, there is an increased need for experienced specialists to help these businesses via strengthening their international operations with local talent; a forte of JAC Recruitment.
