

ARK CONSULTING

Company Description

Our company was founded by a strategy/IT consultant from a general consulting firm and a major Sler, and our main business is to provide consulting services mainly for the implementation of packages such as SAP.

Mission

“Bloom Your Own Color”.

To provide society with human resources who can embody our unique values (vision) as a business.

Based on logical thinking, leadership, and creative thinking, we hope to nurture young leaders who can take an active role with discretionary authority. Our mission is to produce the next generation of leaders who can embody their individuality and values as a business, and who will be active in their own way in the future.

Management plan

2030 Sales of 7 billion yen & IPO (IPO)

In the five years since our founding, we have steadily increased our business performance and achieved the sales target set at the time of our founding.

From now until 2030, we have set even higher goals to achieve further growth. Upon going public, we plan to introduce stock options to return profits to our employees. In addition, we are aiming to establish sales in multiple business domains by transforming the company into a holding company in order to achieve faster growth than ever before.

We hope you will be a part of the growth of the company up to the time it goes public.
