

Tokyo International School Group Co.Ltd.,

Company Description

Company Mission

Inspiring confident, self-expressive, English communicators for personal and social responsibility.

Tokyo International School Group (TISG), Ltd., is an educational company that nurtures children to be global citizens in the 21st century.

Our founder and CEO, Ikuko Newell, established English Studio (ES) in Mita, Minato Ward, Tokyo to provide a more interesting alternative to conventional English conversation schools. Since then, the company has grown to include Tokyo International School (TIS), Tokyo International Progressive School (TIPS) and TISG, all of which are committed to nurturing children to take responsibility for themselves and society, and to express themselves in English with confidence.

Curriculum development

We have developed a unique curriculum for children who learn English as a second language, by combining EFL and 21st century learning, and utilizing the knowledge of the inquiry-based curriculum implemented at Tokyo International School, an International Baccalaureate accredited school and one of our group organizations.

Running After-school and Kindergarten

Using our in-house created curricula, we run an afterschool program for primary school children and a kindergarten program for pre-school children, at 4 model schools and 5 franchise schools.

Recruitment, introduction, dispatch, and training of foreign teachers

We hire and train native English speaking teachers to teach our curriculum at our model schools, and we recruit and train teachers for franchise campuses, and we provide them with management advice.

Company Details

Head Office

Japan

Main Business

教育・学習支援

President

ニューエル郁子

Established

創業 1985年12月

Capital

4500万円

Number of Employees

101 - 500

URL

<http://www.tokyois-group.com/>

Offices

Main Office

Toshin Meguro Building 5F
2-20-28 Shimomeguro, Meguro-ku
Tokyo, Japan, 1530064