

MITSUI BUSSAN AUTOMOTIVE INC.

Company Description

Our company was established in April 1993 to respond swiftly and flexibly to the structural changes taking place in the automotive industry.

As a wholly owned subsidiary of Mitsui & Co., Ltd., we are actively developing our automobile-related business in Japan and overseas making full use of the Mitsui & Co. group's robust global network and business knowhow cultivated over many years. In our export business, in addition to vehicles produced by domestic manufacturers, we also handle a wide range of repair and maintenance components, as well as vehicle production components, equipment, and equipment components for local production plants. On the domestic front, we operate an online auction business for damaged vehicles, used cars.

In Japan, our customers include approximately 200 companies in relation to our online auction business and about 450 automobile manufacturers and automotive equipment and components suppliers, and our overseas customer base extends to dozens of countries around the world, including the Americas, Europe, and Southeast Asia regions.

Not bound by the frameworks of existing trading companies, we are utilizing our expertise to expand our business horizons across the globe.
