Malvern College Tokyo

Company Description

Malvern College Tokyo aims to be the first British-branded all-through IB school in Tokyo and is set to open in September 2023 as the tenth addition to the Malvern College Family of Schools.

Continuing to expand its international portfolio of schools, Malvern College has chosen Tokyo, a 'world city' with consistent population growth for its tenth overseas school. Malvern College will work in unison with the Babylon education group who already manage three other schools within the Malvern College Family, including Malvern College Chengdu, Malvern College Hong Kong and Malvern College Hong Kong Prep Schools.

Founded in 1865, Malvern College is a leading co-educational boarding and day school based in Malvern, Worcestershire, UK. Together with its associated preparatory schools, The Downs Malvern and Abberley Hall, it provides a quality education for both boys and girls aged from 3 to 18 years.

Thanks to its academic rigour and its pursuit of a holistic education, Malvern College has produced renowned alumni including the author CS Lewis, Nobel Prize winners Francis Aston and James Meade, psychologist Edward Titchener, as well as famous personalities including the actor Denholm Elliot and England's current Chief Medical Officer Sir Chris Whitty.

【Malvern College UK】Due to Malvern's strong position at the forefront of educational development and its shared belief of the importance of both academic and extra-curricular education, the College is one of the first UK schools to adopt the International Baccalaureate (IB). Since then, Malvern College has acquired an enviable reputation of being one of the best and most established IB schools in the country and the school comfortably beats the world average in all subject areas. The College's IB graduates regularly average over 36 points (the world average is 29.9).
