Okawa.Co.,Ltd.

Company Description

Okawa Co., Ltd. is a company that supports corporate growth through the power of BPO.

As a dedicated Japan human resources vendor for many global companies, and as a recruitment and staffing company specializing in foreign-affiliated companies, we help companies find the talent they need.

In our company operations, we place importance on understanding diversity and are committed to providing an easy-to-work environment, which is something we do as a young venture.

・An international atmosphere that values international sensibilities
・Fairness and no discrimination in all areas of employment relations
・Open corporate culture where communication is possible from top to bottom

With these things in mind, we strive to create a company that can always provide good service and run the company in a way that provides high employee satisfaction.

Even in Japan, we live in an age where there is a strong demand for bilingual and global talent.
In order to keep up with the times and revitalize your business activities, we will help you with a high-quality matching service that satisfies both companies and human resources.
