Apollo Trading Corporation

Company Description

Established in 1995 as a trading company specializing in business of china and japan, Apollo Trading Corporation expanded its trading business into the manufacturing industry with the establishment of an air filter manufacturing company in Guangdong Province in 2000. Subsequently focusing on business in the Chinese economic bloc, the company went on to expand its B-to-B activities as a trading company and manufacturer and developed the Apollo Trading Group, a corporate group made up of many business bases, mainly in East Asia. Now, we are active in the field of B-to-C business and have expanded our activities into fields of business with direct contact with consumers. We in the Apollo Trading Group will continue to meet the challenge of becoming an enterprise contributing to the creation of a better tomorrow for ever-greater numbers of people.
