

BHS Corrugated Singapore Pte.,Ltd. - Japan Branch

Company Description

BHS Corrugated – the world’s leading provider of solutions for the corrugated industry

BHS Corrugated is the global market leader for corrugators with 2,200 employees, in more than 20 countries, with a market share of around 50%.

The company is headquartered in Weiherhammer, Germany. BHS Corrugated is consistently strong across the entire product and service range: from development and production, to installation and maintenance, to a variety of innovative service solutions in the areas of corrugating rolls, individual machines, complete corrugators and soon to come inline digital print.

Significant aspects of digitalization, primarily regarding the optimization of process parameters and increasing degrees of automation and production efficiency, have been central issues of BHS Corrugated for many decades. To meet the requirements of its customers as precisely as possible and to be always state-of-the-art, BHS Corrugated reinvests close to 5 percent of its turnover in research and development.

Beneath its core business, BHS Corrugated supports different social projects, for example the family’s own foundation “Angels for Children”.
