

Kinoshita & Associates

Company Description

We, Kinoshita & Associates, are always trying to make a progress to achieve our business goal, "to provide long-term intellectual-property related service, and to contribute to social development through the intellectual properties." In order to achieve the business goal, we have set up the above guidelines and keep the business policy in mind in daily business.

We will keep providing comprehensive intellectual-property-related services to "create value of intellectual properties." In other words, we will put our force not only on acquisition of intellectual properties but also on adding value to our clients' idea over a long term from the pre-acquisition stage to utilization of the intellectual properties.
