

Art to Heritage, Inc

Company Description

Art to Heritage connects the future of artists and collectors through contemporary art.

We make the asset value of art visible.
We clarify ambiguous pricing to enable secure buying and selling.
To invigorate the market further.

The resulting public interest will foster artist development, ensuring contemporary art endures as cultural heritage.

Our mission is to cultivate a society where the joy of art ownership is fulfilled, and where art that connects to the future is created.
