

extra mile Inc.

Company Description

mission

Providing groundbreaking CONTENTS for everyone.

- Our goal is to contribute to society through entertainment that brings smiles to everyone's faces by creating new ideas and services that make the world more convenient, enjoyable, and life-enriching.
- We will continue to be a pioneer, keeping up with trends, innovative ideas, and overwhelming energy. We will pave the way where no one has walked before, with a strong sense of not being afraid to take risks.
- Our mission is to build values that can be passed on to the next generation, to be a tailwind for a better, sustainable future.

vision

go the extra mile

Our goal is to create entertainment that exceeds the imagination of our customers.

extra mile always aims to be "a group that puts the user first" and provides entertainment with the audience in mind. We aim to provide entertainment that satisfies the audience, which requires customer service that is so detailed that it is almost divine, and delivery that never gives up, no matter what, in order to move the emotions of our customers.

Individual initiative

We always think about what each individual can do, try to understand what we don't understand, and ask questions. We take initiative, even in small ways, take responsibility for our own words and actions, and strive to achieve our mission.

ingenuity

We place importance on understanding the business structure and situation correctly and acting rationally. We aim to accomplish our mission through trial and error, updating and accelerating the speed at which issues are resolved.

We will do our utmost with a never-give-up attitude.

We continue to seriously confront difficult situations, search for solutions, and take on new challenges. We will make long and continuous persistent efforts to achieve our objectives and accomplish our mission.

Achieve high results through teamwork

We value teamwork, taking responsibility for and accomplishing tasks and projects. We evaluate each other and work hard to accomplish our mission.

Enjoy the change

We value constant change in response to changes in society. We aim to fulfill our work style and achieve our mission by enjoying new things and changes. We will do our utmost with a never-give-up attitude.
