

Japan Hotel REIT Advisors Co., Ltd.

Company Description

Our company, Japan Hotel REIT Advisors Co., Ltd. ("JHRA"), is an independent asset management company specializing in hotel assets. We serve as the asset manager of Japan Hotel REIT Investment Corporation ("Japan Hotel REIT", Securities Code: 8985), and also form and manage private funds that mainly invest in hotels.

Hotel asset management requires collaboration and cooperation with hotel operators and various parties involved, in addition to expertise and experience specific to hotel operations. As a hotel asset management specialist, we strive to contribute to the sustainable development of society and the local communities while enhancing the value of hotels by using our know-how, network, and relationship of trust with many stakeholders we have cultivated to date.

Japan, with its unique and attractive culture and climate, boasts solid transport infrastructure and abundant tourism resources. The country's tourism industry, having overcome the COVID-19 pandemic, is entering a new phase of growth. Through our investment management business, which bridges the hotel market and the financial market, we aim to contribute to the development of the hotel market and the tourism industry, ultimately enhancing the Japanese economy. Each employee at JHRA is committed to consistently building trust with stakeholders through their daily efforts.
