

NEOWIZ GameOn Corp.

Company Description

game business

In addition to casual games that can be enjoyed anytime, we are developing new titles and services that have been thoroughly crafted to provide rich and new entertainment experiences.

Investment/M&A business

We conduct investments and M&A in domestic and overseas companies through both Game On and GEON Investment, our wholly-owned subsidiary.

Consulting business

Based on over 20 years of experience in content procurement, investment, and alliances, we provide a variety of consulting services to support overseas expansion, including global business matching, support for building business strategies, and advisory services.

new business

Our company is not limited to the game business, which has a history and network spanning more than 20 years, and continues to develop and take on new challenges.
