The Fujikura Parachute Co.,Ltd.

Company Description

Fujikura Parachute Co.,Ltd has been a sole parachute manufacturer in Japan with our exclusive technology and has also developed many other life support equipment since our foundation in 1939.
We force ourselves to the mission to secure 100% of safety at any time because of our products' obligations to protect human lives.
We haven't been reported any accidents arising out of our products for over 70 years and the biggest reason of this performance is brought by the uncompromising stance that all our staff have.
