

Micale Recruitment Pty Ltd

Company Description

Introducing Micale Recruitment

Micale Recruitment is a recognised leader in Melbourne's professional recruitment industry. Our wealth of experience and our depth of insight means we are able to consistently deliver above expectations for both clients and candidates.

We are known for our integrity, our personalised approach, our impeccable professionalism and our comprehensive understanding of the current job market. We are able to identify the potential in candidates, and we pride ourselves on being passionate advocates on their behalf. We also develop longstanding relationships with our clients, which enables us to best understand their needs and efficiently find them the right candidates.

Ultimately our success is demonstrated by the number of long-term candidate placements we have delivered and the ongoing partnerships we enjoy with our clients.

A history of respect

For more than 25 years, the name of Rosa Micale has been known for a consistently high level of success sourcing and securing the right person for the right role. In 1993 Rosa established her own highly respected business, which was eventually sold in 2001 and continues to operate.

Today, Rosa maintains her influential presence in the Australian recruitment sector as the owner and principal of Micale Recruitment. Rosa and her team are responsible for helping hundreds of people navigate the job market, and for assisting a wide range of businesses and organisations to find the best candidate to suit their needs.
