

TAIMATSU Co., Ltd

Company Description

TAIMATSU Co., Ltd. is a Japanese company dedicated to promoting the value of Japan's traditional culture and craftsmanship both domestically and internationally. The company connects traditional industries with modern lifestyles by developing businesses centered on authentic Japanese products, including premium kitchen knives and sake. Through its own brands, e-commerce platforms, physical retail stores, and international distribution channels, TAIMATSU introduces the excellence of Japanese craftsmanship to customers around the world.

Working closely with skilled artisans and manufacturers across Japan, the company helps preserve and promote traditional industries by showcasing the craftsmanship, history, and cultural significance behind each product. In addition to product sales, TAIMATSU is engaged in digital marketing, brand development, and the planning and operation of experiential services, creating new value by combining tradition with innovation.

Guided by its mission of bringing the finest products and culture of Japan to the world, TAIMATSU Co., Ltd. continues to expand its business globally while serving as a bridge between Japanese craftsmanship and international customers.
