

Linklaters

Linklaters

Company Description

Linklaters is one of the world's preeminent global law firms, renowned for its exceptional legal expertise, innovative approach, and strategic commercial insights. Founded in 1838 and headquartered in London, Linklaters is proud to be a member of the prestigious "Magic Circle" of leading UK law firms. Today, the firm boasts a truly global footprint, operating 30 offices across 20 countries in major business and financial centers throughout Europe, the Americas, Asia, and the Middle East. With a dedicated team of over 3,100 lawyers and more than 7,100 employees worldwide, Linklaters possesses the extensive scale and depth of knowledge required to handle the most complex and critical challenges facing multinational corporations, top-tier financial institutions, and government bodies.

The firm's core practices encompass a comprehensive range of corporate and commercial legal services. These include Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A), capital markets, banking and finance, antitrust and foreign investment, dispute resolution, and regulatory compliance. Linklaters is deeply committed to delivering a seamless, one-stop service to its clients. By leveraging its highly integrated global network, the firm successfully navigates cross-border transactions and multi-jurisdictional regulatory frameworks, providing tailored, commercially viable solutions that drive client success in an increasingly interconnected global economy.

In Japan, Linklaters established its Tokyo office in 1987 and later formed a joint enterprise with Japanese lawyers in 2005. This strategic evolution enables the Tokyo office to offer fully integrated advice on Japanese, English, and US law under one roof. The highly skilled team in Tokyo works seamlessly with the firm's international network to assist Japanese corporations with their outbound investments and global expansions, while simultaneously supporting international clients entering and operating within the Japanese market.

Beyond its legal prowess, Linklaters is widely recognized as an industry pioneer in championing diversity, equity, and inclusion, as well as advancing crucial environmental, social, and governance (ESG) initiatives. The firm actively invests in cutting-edge legal technology and progressive working environments to continually enhance service delivery and operational efficiency. By fostering a collaborative and highly inclusive culture, Linklaters consistently attracts the world's top legal talent, maintaining its enduring position as a trusted, forward-thinking legal partner for the future.

Company Details

Head Office

United Kingdom

Main Business

法律事務所・企業法務サービス（M&A、コーポレート、キャピタル・マーケット、バンキング、独占禁止法、紛争解決など、幅広いビジネス法務の提供）

President

該当なし（英国法に基づく有限責任事業組合（LLP）であるため「代表取締役」という役職は存在しません）

Established

1987年

Capital

該当なし（非公開）

Number of Employees

Over 1,000

URL

www.linklaters.com

Offices

Main Office

Marunochi 2-1-1, Chiyoda-ku
Tokyo, Japan, 1000005