

Servcorp Japan K.K.

Company Description

Servcorp was founded in 1978 in Australia by Alfred G. Moufarrige (CEO). As a pioneer of the Service Office and Virtual Office industry, Moufarrige has been working in the flexible workspace industry for over 45 years. Notably, Servcorp is the birthplace of the Virtual Office over 30 years ago. The company went global in 1987 and now has over 150 locations in over 40 cities and 20 countries around the world. In 1994 Servcorp opened its first location in Japan and now has 30 floors of flexible workspace solutions spread throughout Tokyo, Yokohama, Osaka, Nagoya, and Fukuoka.

Servcorp Japan prides itself on being the Finest Flexible Workspace provider in Japan and on providing real career opportunities for women. Approximately 95% of employees are women, including managerial positions, thus providing a comfortable working environment for women to succeed. “Service” is at the heart of its business model. Using the experience and knowledge acquired since opening its first location in Japan back in 1994, Servcorp will continue growing its Serviced Office, Coworking, and Virtual Offices services to support its clients’ businesses to prosper and grow.
