Responsibilities:

- Provide legal support to the Company, including: Drafting, reviewing and negotiating a wide variety of contracts with suppliers, vendors and consultants. Advising and providing legal support to corporate business units, including accounting, corporate finance, HR, marketing/sales, risk management and tax groups. Providing advice and guidance to internal clients with respect to drafting, negotiation and interpretation. Providing ongoing support for management of MCDR's joint venture structure, including board meetings, and the Company's compliance initiatives
- Prepare, review and negotiate agreements for the Company's properties, including:
 - o Reviewing, drafting and negotiating complex and sometimes multi-tiered and multi-jurisdictional customer or vendor agreements, including leases, licenses and service agreements and associated transactional documents, from standard templates and third-party forms.
 - o Supporting contract reviews and maintenance of customer agreement database as needed.
 - o Providing legal support to portfolio management and property operations teams, including day-to-day matters (tenant inquiries and audits) and more significant projects.
- Provide support to the acquisitions and investments teams on potential transactions.
- Manage outside counsel effectively and efficiently.
- Work closely with senior stakeholders in the Company, including members of MCDR's leadership team and the business and legal leadership of MCDR's shareholders,
- Support the continuous improvement of standard forms and the development and improvement of policies and procedures.
- Execute assigned projects, including the development and implementation of processes, as determined by the needs of the business.

Required Skills

- 5 – 10+ years of corporate law experience, including in-house experience.
- Excellent drafting, negotiating, writing, speaking and analytical skills.
- Experience in transaction and document management.
- Ability to identify and research legal risks and issues, and effectively counsel clients
- Flexible team-player with excellent interpersonal and communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Law degree strongly preferred
- Experience in tax or compliance is a plus.
- Highly organized with strong attention to detail.
- Self-motivated, independent and able to handle and prioritize time-sensitive projects.
