Job Description

New app company for mobile banking in Japan.

This company will change the way people bank, save and track their expenses on a daily level.

Are you interested in joining a start up with stable backing that is already working with Japanese banks to create the next generation of mobile banking app in Japan?

Required Skills

2+ years of Flutter app development and deployment to app stores

5 years in total of development/coding experience and understanding of app architecture

Previous work experience with a financial services app (flexibility on type of apps)

Strong Japanese skills, reading, writing and speaking are a MUST.

The developers will be communicating with Japanese banks and you must be comfortable working in Japanese with Japanese domestic counterparts.
