Job Description

Company and Job Overview

A Japanese wellness products manufacturer with operations in over 70 countries is looking for a results-driven Sales Representative to grow business by managing distributor relationships and expanding sales channels. This role involves executing sales strategies, enhancing brand presence, and identifying new business opportunities.

Job Responsibilities

- Lead sales activities to achieve company targets, adjusting strategies as needed.
- Maintain strong relationships with distributors, introducing new products and expanding their SKU range.
- Develop and implement in-store expansion plans, branding initiatives, and display optimization.
- Research and reach out to potential clients to develop new sales channels.

- Conduct meetings, training sessions, and attend industry events.
- Identify prospects, manage the sales cycle, and close new business deals.
- Collaborate with internal teams to ensure efficient inventory management and order fulfillment.
- Prepare reports, proposals, and other documentation to support business decisions.
- This role requires business travel for market expansion efforts and industry events.

Job Requirements

- 3+ years of proven experience in sales, business development, or account management.
- Strong communication and relationship-building skills.
- Ability to analyze market trends and identify growth opportunities.
- Valid driver's license.
- Legal authorization to work in Germany (citizenship, permanent residency, or valid work visa).
- Business-level English proficiency.

〈Preferred Skills〉

- Experience in the retail and wholesale industry
- Conversational level Japanese language skills
- Additional language skills in German or Czech, Slovak, Hungarian native languages are a plus.
