Position Overview: The Managing Director will lead the strategic direction and operational execution of our fintech company, ensuring sustainable growth and innovation in the financial technology sector. This role requires a visionary leader with a strong background in fintech, exceptional management skills, and the ability to drive business objectives, particularly in business transformation.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement the company's strategic plan to achieve business goals and objectives.
- Drive innovation and growth through new product development and market expansion.

- Manage day-to-day operations, ensuring efficiency and effectiveness in all business processes.
- Monitor and analyze performance metrics to ensure alignment with strategic goals.
- Lead and manage large-scale business transformation initiatives to improve overall performance.
- Identify opportunities for process optimization, cost reduction, and revenue enhancement.
- Oversee financial planning, budgeting, and forecasting to ensure financial health and profitability.
- Manage P&L responsibilities, ensuring revenue growth and cost control.
- Foster a collaborative and innovative work environment.
- MBA or equivalent advanced degree in business, finance, or related field.
- Proven track record in a leadership role within the fintech industry.
- Strong strategic and analytical capabilities with a focus on revenue growth and profitability.
- Expertise in business transformation, including process optimization and change management.
- Exceptional communication, presentation, and negotiation skills.
- Experience in managing risk-based business strategies and execution.
- Good command of English and Thai
