Job Description

Job Title: Senior Finance Manager

Location: Singapore

About the Opportunity

A leading energy and materials conglomerate headquartered in Japan, this organization has a long-standing presence across petroleum refining, automotive lubricants, renewable energy, and resource recycling. It plays a strategic role in advancing energy infrastructure and sustainability initiatives throughout Asia. The Singapore office serves as a key regional hub, focusing on lubricant distribution, technical support, and energy trading, while partnering with industrial and automotive clients to deliver tailored solutions and market insights.

Key Responsibilities:

- Manage and lead a finance team of 6 members, focusing on personnel development, performance evaluation, task allocation, and progress monitoring.

- Foster collaboration and engagement within the team environment.
- Support the recruitment and onboarding of two additional team members in the near future.
- Ensure accuracy, timeliness, and compliance of daily financial transactions.
- Supervise the quality of monthly, quarterly, and annual closings, financial reporting, and statutory audits.
- Streamline financial processes to handle increasing transaction volumes efficiently.
- Oversee corporate income tax and GST matters, ensuring compliance with BEPS 2.0 reporting obligations.
- Review and update transfer pricing documentation in line with evolving business models.
- Evaluate and apply relevant tax incentives under Singapore tax regulations.
- Organize budget planning activities, conduct variance analysis, and prepare performance reports.
- Provide financial insights and support to the business, particularly the core trading operations.
- Deliver regular financial reports and analysis to senior management.

Qualifications:

- At least five years of relevant experience in accounting and finance.
- A minimum of three years in a team leadership role, preferably managing three or more team members.
- Prior exposure to the energy sector or experience working in a Japanese company is beneficial but not essential.
- Strong expertise in cash management, financial reporting, taxation, and management accounting.
- Demonstrated ability to lead proactively, solve problems effectively, and drive process improvements.
- High standards of professionalism, integrity, and accountability.
- Must be a Singapore citizen or permanent resident.
- Excellent command of English, both written and spoken.
- Japanese language proficiency is an advantage but not a requirement.
