Job Description

Join a global outsourcing leader as a Market Researcher, conducting due diligence for financial clients. This role offers the chance to work closely with international clients, ensuring compliance and risk management.

Client Details

Our client is a leading company in the field of business communications, marketing solutions, and digital productivity solutions. With a strong track record spanning over three decades, they specialize in transforming customer experiences and building brand loyalty. Operating globally with a team of over 7,000 experts across 40 locations, they work across various industries to co-create future-ready business landscapes.

Description

- Conduct thorough credit and due diligence investigations for financial clients.
- Use public data and proprietary databases to uncover critical business information.
- Identify potential risks, including associations with antisocial elements.
- Summarize findings in concise, well-structured English reports.
- Adjust research scope based on client feedback and evolving requirements.

Job Offer

- Full-time position with no fixed term, offering job stability.
- Standard working hours with paid overtime and flexible remote work options.
- Comprehensive benefits, including health insurance, welfare pension, and paid leave.
- Professional growth opportunities in a global business environment.
