About the Role

Our client, a leading organization in vehicle manufacturing, is currently seeking a Japanese Speaking Strategy Planning Executive to support their growing operations in Thailand. This is a fantastic opportunity for candidates with a background in administration, secretarial work, or Japanese-speaking roles who are ready to step into a more strategic position.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist in strategic planning and coordination across departments.
- Prepare and manage reports, presentations, and internal documentation.
- Act as a liaison between Japanese stakeholders and local teams.
- Provide administrative and secretarial support to the Strategy Planning team.
- Translate and interpret Japanese documents and communications.

Candidate Requirements

- Minimum 2 years of experience in admin, secretary, or Japanese-speaking roles.
- Japanese language proficiency at JLPT N2 or above.
- Strong communication and organizational skills.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, multicultural environment.
- Proficiency in MS Office (Excel, PowerPoint, Word).

Benefits

- Competitive salary and benefits package.
- Career development opportunities in strategic planning.
- Exposure to international business environments.
