Job Description

Key Responsibilities:

- Serve as the primary Japanese Interpreter for all factory and business communication (meetings, calls, emails, documentation).
- Facilitate clear and effective communication between Japanese management and all Thai staff (internal staff, operations, engineering) and external clients.
- Translate and interpret technical documents, manuals, and production-related discussions with precision.
- Utilize your prior production experience to assist with daily factory operations, ensuring smooth workflow and troubleshooting communication issues on the floor.
- Prepare for future factory leadership by observing operations and assisting management with various reporting and coordination tasks.

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree in any related field.
- More than 10 years of experience in any production function from the manufacturing site.
- Able to travel from and to site.
- Able to work 1 Saturday a month.
- Able to work well under pressure and with a well-managed and dynamic style.
- Japanese proficiency level N2 or above.
