Job Description

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Our client is a leading Singapore-based management consultancy, delivers branding, marketing strategy, and integrated business solutions with a strong regional presence across Asia and the US.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

We are seeking caring, disciplined, and well-mannered Children's Development Specialists to support the personal development and daily routines of school-aged children in a private household. The role focuses on cultivating proper etiquette, social behaviour, and emotional intelligence within a structured and nurturing environment.

- Guide children in developing proper manners, respectful behaviour, and appropriate ways of interacting with others, including elders and peers
- Support the application of social etiquette in various settings such as public spaces, school environments, and family gatherings, including personal space awareness and polite conversation

- Coach children on table manners and dining etiquette, covering both casual and formal settings, including correct use of utensils and dining conduct
- Encourage personal grooming, hygiene, dress sense, and posture, helping children build consistent daily habits and present themselves appropriately
- Support the development of clear, confident, and respectful communication skills, including proper introductions and social interactions
- Guide children in emotional regulation, conflict resolution, and social awareness, fostering patience, active listening, and healthy emotional expression

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Experience in guiding children's emotional and developmental growth, with exposure to working with teenagers will be a bonus.
- Willing to commit to shifts
