Job Description

Job Title: Regulatory Affairs Specialist

Location: Singapore

About Us:

Join a leading global medical device company dedicated to advancing healthcare and improving patient outcomes worldwide. With a strong commitment to quality, innovation, and patient safety, they are expanding their reach across the dynamic Asia-Pacific markets.

Key Responsibilities:

- Coordinate product registration and market access approval in designated APAC countries.
- Provide expert advice on interpreting regulatory guidance and standards to internal and external teams.
- Liaise with local authorities for regulatory problem-solving and to obtain updated information on developing regulations. Lead comprehensive post-market surveillance activities, including complaint reporting, analysis, FSCA, and recall coordination.

Qualifications:

- At least 2 years of experience in regulatory affairs within the medical device industry.
- Strong knowledge of medical device regulations and the APAC regulatory landscape (including post-market surveillance).
- Proactive, detail-oriented, with excellent communication and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to collaborate effectively across functions and manage multiple tasks.
