Job Description

- Overview: A new brokerage function focused on high-end property transactions has been launched to support business growth. Early-stage members are sought to help build and shape the operation from the ground up.
- Key Responsibilities: Engaging with high-net-worth clients to understand asset needs, proposing premium properties in prime locations, managing negotiations and closings, conducting property viewings, and coordinating with external partners.
- Sales Approach: Client acquisition may come through internal channels, referrals, independent outreach, or personal networks. There is no fixed sales model, allowing flexibility to operate in a style that best suits individual strengths.
