Job Description

Position: SENIOR TECHNICAL MANAGER – High-End Jewelry Manufacturing

Business: High-End Jewelry Manufacturing

Location: Bangkok

Salary: 100,000 – 150,000 THB

Overview:

We are looking for a seasoned Senior Technical Manager to oversee technical development, production readiness, and process optimization within high-end jewelry manufacturing. The ideal candidate brings extensive hands-on expertise in metallurgy, casting, goldsmithing, and stonemasonry, combined with proven leadership on the factory floor.

Key Responsibilities:

- Oversee technical feasibility, design reviews, and design-to-production integration.
- Manage production readiness, tooling decisions, and process optimization.
- Drive quality improvement, reduce gold loss, and minimize defects and rework.

- Lead Lean Manufacturing initiatives to improve efficiency and workflow.
- Supervise and develop technical teams (goldsmiths, setters, casters, model makers).
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to ensure smooth production execution.

Qualifications:

- 20+ years in high-end or luxury jewelry manufacturing (OEM experience required).
- Strong background with US & European client standards.
- Deep knowledge of metallurgy, alloy behavior, and casting processes.
- Hands-on experience with goldsmithing, diamond & gemstone setting.
- Proficient in CAD/CAM and production integration workflows.
- Proven experience implementing Lean Manufacturing on the factory floor.
- Strong leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills.
