A great opportunity for an experienced inventory professional to play a key role in maintaining accuracy and operational efficiency within a dynamic warehouse environment. This role oversees inventory integrity, cycle counting, expiration tracking, and coordination of incoming and outgoing products.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Manage all inventory control activities, including RMA processes and adherence to FIFO/FEFO rotation standards.
- Perform regular cycle counts, investigate discrepancies, conduct root-cause analysis, and recommend corrective actions.
- Lead expiration-date counting, reconciliation, and reporting processes in line with internal guidelines.
- Ensure all inventory transactions and adjustments are accurately updated in the warehouse management system.

- Support verification of inbound and outbound shipments and provide assistance to other warehouse departments.
- Train and guide team members in inventory control tasks under managerial direction.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High School diploma or GED
- 1–2 years of inventory control experience
- Training and/or certification for forklift and electric pallet jack
- Basic proficiency in Microsoft Office and web-based systems
- Strong communication skills and ability to collaborate with diverse teams
- Ability to work in refrigerated and freezer environments

SALARY USD 22.80-26.70
