Job Description

Our client, a well-known MNC, specializing in the recovery, refining, and trading of precious and non-ferrous metals is hiring for a sales executive.

Job Responsibilities:

- Manage and grow relationships with existing clients, ensuring strong service quality and customer satisfaction.
- Drive new business development by identifying and engaging potential clients in the electrical/electronic manufacturing sector across Singapore and ASEAN.
- Provide consultative sales by understanding client production processes and proposing suitable industrial waste recycling or electronic materials solutions.
- Monitor industry trends, competitors, and precious-metal market movements to provide strategic insights to management.

Job Requirements:

- Minimum 5 years of sales experience, ideally in the manufacturing sector (electrical/electronics preferred).
- Diploma or Bachelor's degree in any field
