Job Description

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Our client is a global leader in precision measurement and advanced industrial solutions, recognized for its longstanding commitment to quality, accuracy, and technological innovation. With a strong focus on research-driven development and continuous improvement, the organization plays a pivotal role in enabling high-standards manufacturing, quality assurance, and metrology excellence across diverse industries worldwide.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- Review and assess transactions, product-shifting applications, and their potential implications.
- Classify products according to export control requirements, including strategic and non-strategic categories.
- Coordinate with HQ to ensure that policy updates and equipment movement information are accurately captured in the company database.

- Ensure Trade Control processes adhere to local regulatory requirements and the company's global control standards.
- Maintain thorough documentation and records for all Trade Control-related operations.
- Conduct end-user screenings for products prior to shipment or quotation.
- Provide training to enhance awareness of export and customs compliance across the Group.
- Undertake additional ad hoc duties as required.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Experience in Product Classification, Customs Regulations, or Singapore's Strategic Goods Control Act is preferred.
- Diploma or Degree in a relevant discipline.
- Strong team player with solid interpersonal and communication skills.
