Job Description

Our client is a well-established entertainment and gaming company whose mission is "Entertainment in Real Life – Making everyday life more enjoyable and more wonderful through entertainment."

They are looking for an accountant to play a central role in executing and supporting all aspects of the company's financial closing processes. There is also a chance to be assigned to projects involving new business initiatives, the establishment of subsidiaries, or M&A activities, giving you the opportunity to expand your experience across a wide range of new business areas.

What You Will Do

- Monthly and annual financial closing operations
- Planning and proposing solutions for tax-related matters
- Liaising with external auditors and handling audit processes
- Preparing management accounting materials (such as budgets and project-level P&L reports)

Beyond game creation, they are innovators who have a goal to create truly original content that will shape generations to come. They value a healthy work-life balance and care about everyone's career development.

Why Join Them?

- A flexible working hours system, with late-night overtime and weekend work generally prohibited
- A work environment that prioritises health and well-being

With pension and stock-ownership plans, sports and childcare support, we offer stability in a fun, dynamic industry.

Required Skills

Requirements (Must-Have)

- Experience with monthly closing processes
- 3+ years of accounting experience
- Knowledge equivalent to Level 2 of the Japanese Bookkeeping Certification (Nissho Boki Level 2)

Language Skills:

- Japanese: Full professional proficiency

Bonus:

- Accounting experience at a publicly listed company or a company with approximately 100+ employees
