Job Description

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- Manage and service a portfolio of private clients, ensuring a high standard of relationship support
- Identify new business opportunities to help expand the client base
- Work closely with internal teams to develop and present investment solutions tailored to clients' needs
- Stay updated on market developments, investment trends, and industry news to provide relevant insights
- Support the overall client experience through efficient coordination and communication

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Individuals who already maintain relationships with Accredited Investors (AI) will have a strong advantage, though this is not a strict requirement.
- Candidates without an existing AI network are welcome — you will receive structured guidance and support to help you build your client portfolio.
- Background in investment advisory, real estate fund investment is beneficial, but the role is also open to those newer to the industry.

- Demonstrated experience in supporting clients through investment journeys and managing expectations will be viewed favourably.

- Solid understanding of market developments, investment instruments, and broader financial concepts.
- A degree in Finance, Economics, Business, or a related discipline
