Job Description

Company Overview

A company in the asset management industry is hiring for a Product Manager position. This role offers the opportunity to drive the development and growth of fund products while contributing to the organization's medium- to long-term strategic objectives. The company is seeking a proactive professional who can combine strong product expertise with innovative thinking to support evolving market needs.

Job Description

- Conduct market research and competitor analysis to identify product opportunities and market gaps, aligning product design with client needs and business strategy.
- Develop and structure fund products, including positioning, pricing considerations, and defining target investor profiles.
- Prepare product proposals, business plans, internal approval materials, and regulatory submission documents.
- Support end-to-end product launch execution through coordination with internal teams such as sales and marketing.
- Monitor post-launch product performance, operational matters, and client feedback, and recommend enhancements when needed.
- Research emerging trends, innovative product structures, and new business models relevant to the asset management industry.
- Evaluate the feasibility and regulatory considerations of new initiatives and translate viable concepts into structured projects.

- Collaborate closely with investment, compliance, legal, operations, sales, and marketing teams throughout the product lifecycle.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or higher.
- Minimum of five years of relevant experience in asset management, fund product management, investment operations, or related fields.
- Strong understanding of fund structures, product development processes, and regulatory considerations within the asset management industry.
- Experience working with cross-functional teams and managing multiple stakeholders.
- Strong analytical skills, documentation capabilities, and project coordination experience.
- Familiarity with regulatory frameworks in major financial jurisdictions, with experience in Singapore or similar regulated markets considered an advantage.
- Detail-oriented, proactive, and able to balance commercial objectives with compliance requirements.

We regret to inform that only shortlisted candidates will be notified.
We appreciate your understanding.
