Job Description

A leading global oil and energy company headquartered in the Middle East. Founded in the early 20th century, the organization has grown into one of the world's largest integrated energy and chemicals enterprises, with operations that include exploration, production, refining, distribution, and international commerce.

The company holds some of the world's largest conventional crude oil reserves and is one of the highest-volume daily producers of crude oil and natural gas. It also plays a key role in the global energy market and is investing in new technologies, low-carbon solutions, and long-term sustainability initiatives as part of a broader national economic diversification strategy.

If you want to grow your career in a global business setting, this is a great place to deepen your procurement and contracting skills. Candidates with experience in procurement, contract operations, or vendor management are especially encouraged to apply!
