Overview of position

The Information Center serves as the primary point of contact for anyone seeking information about Temple University, Japan Campus (TUJ) and its programs.

This role is essential in delivering a welcoming, professional, and student-centered experience to visitors, prospective students, and current students. The position combines front-desk operations, student support services, and administrative coordination, requiring strong communication skills, attention to detail, and the ability to multitask in a dynamic campus environment.

As the "face of TUJ," the Information Center team plays a critical role in shaping the first impression of the university. This position is ideal for someone who enjoys interacting with people from diverse backgrounds, thrives in a fast-paced environment, and takes pride in delivering high-quality service.

Primary ResponsibilitiesFront Desk & Communication & Support Services

- Serve as the first point of contact for visitors, prospective students, and current students
- Answer incoming calls, redirect inquiries appropriately, and respond to email messages in a timely and professional manner

- Assist walk-in visitors with general inquiries and support
- Distribute TUJ ID cards, commuter stickers, and long-distance discount coupons
- Manage student locker assignments and usage
- Assist students with minor health concerns and support the use of the Sick Room
- Support other offices and programs with promotional activities and student-service initiatives

Administrative & Operational Support

- Create and maintain CRM records accurately and efficiently
- Assist with postal and courier deliveries
- Manage TUJ merchandise sales and inventory control
- Monitor office supplies and place orders as needed
