- Cross-functional role bridging infrastructure, network, security, and platform teams within a complex enterprise environment
- Potential for future permanent employment within one of Japan's leading internet platform environments

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate infrastructure-related activities across architecture, network, and security domains
- Support platform-related discussions, confirmations, and decision-making processes
- Work closely with infrastructure, security, and development stakeholders
- Support infrastructure governance and operational improvement initiatives
- Utilize DevOps and CI/CD related processes within platform environments
- Coordinate activities related to VM environments, networking, cloud infrastructure, and security operations
- Support communication and alignment across multiple internal organizations

Why should you apply:

- Long-term and stable project in a global insurance leader
- Hybrid work setup with a collaborative, international team
- Career growth opportunities within a diverse and inclusive environment

Required SkillsRequired Skills:

- Experience in infrastructure and networking environments
- Understanding of TCP/IP, DNS, Load Balancers, Firewalls, VPN, and VM environments
- Experience with CI/CD tools and version control systems such as Jenkins, GitHub Actions, and Git
- Experience with cloud environments (AWS / Azure / GCP preferred)
- Understanding of security fundamentals, IAM, patch management, or vulnerability management
- Japanese: High Intermediate level (N2+)
- English: Advanced level (TOEIC 800+)
