Job Description

Company Overview

Our client is one of the largest asset managers Asia with an AUM of about 500Bn USD.

Descriptions

- They are looking to appoint a Listed Equity Analyst to join our Singapore-based investment team, with primary coverage responsibility for South Asian equities, particularly the Indian market. This role focuses on delivering high-quality, bottom-up equity research to support investment decision-making.
- Perform fundamental equity research on assigned listed companies, including financial statement analysis, valuation modelling, scenario analysis, and assessment of business and ESG-related risks and opportunities.
- Track and analyse regional and macroeconomic trends, sector developments, and company-specific events that may influence equity performance.
- Produce research outputs such as investment reports, internal notes, presentations, and market updates to support portfolio construction and monitoring.

- Develop, maintain, and refine financial models and investment theses for covered companies, ensuring assumptions remain current and well-documented
- Support the Head of Research / Investment team with ad-hoc analysis and the coordination of new research or investment initiatives.

Requirements:

- Minimum of 3 years' experience as an Equity Analyst focusing on the Indian stock market.
- Sellside experience is nice to have.
- Strong knowledge of the Indian economy, market dynamics, and individual companies.

We regret to inform that only shortlisted candidates will be notified.
Appreciate your understanding. Candidates require visa need not to apply.
